OmniMind AI: Internal Combustion Engines - Chapter 4

Section 4.1: Four-Stroke Working Cycle

1. Intake Stroke: Piston descends from TDC to BDC creating negative pressure.
2. Compression Stroke: Valves seal tightly; fuel-air charge compressed ~10:1.
3. Power Stroke: Spark discharge right before TDC initiates combustion.
4. Exhaust Stroke: Exhaust valve opens as piston ascends, expelling gas.